FORMER RESIDENT OF WAUSEON

Mrs. Livona Smith, a former resident of Fulton County and of Wauseon died at her home in Huntington, Ind., at the age of eighty-four years, January 11th, 1919, after an illness of four years duration. Mrs. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jewell, was born in Wayne Co., Ohio, November 25th, 1834. She came as a child with her parents to Fulton County, the family locating in this vicinity of Spring Hill. September 10th, 1850 she was united in marriage to Rev. Lawrence B. Smith her husband was for some time pastor of the Christian churches in Wauseon and Tedrow.

She left Wauseon in 1886 when her husband was called to the pastorate of the Central Christian church of Huntington, Indiana. This city remained her home to the time of her death; her husband served for 21 years as the pastor of this church to the time of his death, January 24th, 1888. Mrs. Smith was one of five sisters, only one of whom survive her. Mrs. Ellen Stubbs of Scott City, Kansas.

Three children survive their mother, Mrs. DeEtta Young of Huntington, and doctors N. B. and L. Smith of Fort Wayne. She leaves also, four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.
